

Map of Camp Sites E5

TEACHER BACKGROUND

There were many kinds of camps for Japanese immigrants and Japanese Americans for exclusion and relocation purposes. The ten War Relocation Centers are the most well-known, but the Justice Department also had detention camps for the people that they designated as more of a threat to national security.

MATERIALS

Attached map that shows the locations of the various camps, U.S. physical map in 5th grade social studies textbook, student activity sheet entitled “Map of Camp Sites”

PROCEDURE

Give students the map of camp locations and the student activity sheet. Have them also open their 5th grade social studies textbook to a physical map of the United States. Have the students answer the questions on the student activity sheet. Allow them to use the wall map of the United States if available. Also, if available, allow students to utilize the wall map of Arkansas.
